Salum recaptured By British Desert Army

Severe Casualties Are Inflicted On Enemy At Egypt Border Outpost

Musaid and "Hellfire Pass" Also Recaptured By Britain's Desert Army—Ethiopia Town Is Occupied

CAIRO, May 16.—(AP)—Salum has been recaptured by British troops, it was announced officially today.

A Middle East headquarters communique said serious casualties had been inflicted on Axis forces which had held the Egyptian border outpost, just across from the Libyan frontier, and some German prisoners had been taken.

British troops recaptured Salum, the British command said. Halfway Pass, where British troops had been fighting since the capture of Musaid also was retaken.

NAIROBI, Kenya Colony, May 16.—(CP)—Imperial forces have captured Naitanya in southern Ethiopia, taking prisoners. British headquarters here announced today.

President Roosevelt Urges France Not To Collaborate With German Dictators

By J. C. STARR
WASHINGTON, May 16.—(AP)—President Roosevelt appealed to France Thursday night not to deliver herself up to a German bent on "the utter destruction of liberty" and at the same time the United States coast guard took a dozen or more French merchant vessels in American waters into protective custody.

Interpreting War News

By KIRK L. SIMPSON
EVIDENCE that France is collaborating with her German conquerors with at least passive military assistance in the East headlines the war news.

It places even the Hess flight mystery in second place since it may lead to Franco-British hostilities in French-occupied Syria. Indeed there is one unexplained report that the hostilities have started, with the Royal Air Force bombing an airfield.

Nazi planes, presumably fighting, have reached Iraq. Whether or not they were escorted on their way by French fighting planes, as a report from London states, remains to be confirmed. That they used the Syrian route from Argentin Islands and were refused to route

Aid To Britain

Emil G. Sick, president of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, and formerly resident of Alberta, who Friday predicted immediate American aid to Great Britain in the battle of the Atlantic.

Strong British forces also advanced on Fort Capuzzo, just inside the Egyptian border, the communique said.

Only Salum, however, was mentioned in the communique. The British made their way into the Egyptian border outpost and claimed "the enemy sustained heavy losses in doing so." Some prisoners were claimed.

NAZIS TRY TO BRIBE TURKEY FOR PASSAGE

Transit Over Territory To Syria and Iraq Being Sought

By DANA WARDHIST
ISTANBUL, Turkey, May 16.—(AP)—Axis informants asserted today that Germany has offered Turkey Greek islands off its coast, it will "co-operate" with Germany and permit weapons, and probably later troops, to be sent across its territory to Syria and Iraq.

It was said that the offer was made to President Inönü by Baron Franz Von Papen, German ambassador here. He had presented a letter from Adolf Hitler.

Political quarters, when they heard the report, said since such "co-operation" would mean the sacrifice of Turkey's neutrality, Turkey would rather fight in support.

Well-informed sources said they were in position to confirm British statements that German planes had arrived in Rome.

They reported that an Axis freighter had been found in the Black Sea port yesterday for the Aegean, presumably with war materials and troops.

According to Istanbul sources at least eight German freighters and four or five Italian and Romanian freighters have now entered the Aegean through the Dardanelles.

It was taken for granted that all the ships carried war materials and troops for the Aegean islands, including the Italian Dodecanese islands off the Turkish coast.

SOMEWHERE IN EUROPE—(CDN)—"A small army isn't powerful enough and a big army would starve to death."

One of the ablest diplomats in Madrid thus explained why Hitler has delayed in the past to occupy Spain. Gibraltar is vital to Hitler if he is to close the Mediterranean, take over French Africa and extend his submarine and air bases against America. Faced with military necessity, Hitler will probably feel that he has no choice and Spain's refusal heretofore to come into the war will be brushed aside.

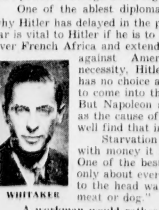

But Napoleon spoke of the "Spanish ulcer" as the cause of his downfall and Hitler may well find that in Spain history repeats itself.

Starvation in Spain is a reality. Even with money it is hard now to procure food.

One of the best hotels in Madrid gets meat only about every three weeks and, according to the head waiter, "that is generally horse."

A workman would rather receive bread than peas.

An Editorial "Too Delicate To Discuss"

DR. W. A. R. KERR, President of the University of Alberta, and H. H. Parlee, K.C., Chairman of the Board of Governors, decline to issue any public statement on the current honorary degrees fiasco because they say "the situation is too delicate to be discussed."

The only thing that can make any such matter "too delicate to discuss" is the refusal of those concerned to take the public into their confidence.

This absurd and preposterous instance of Indian giving is not too delicate to be discussed on every street corner and in every barber shop in Alberta. It is not too delicate to be discussed over every dinner table in Alberta whether it has been carried by press wires as an unprecedented example of vicious political intrigue.

We can thoroughly understand the reticence of Dr. Kerr and Mr. Parlee because they have been humiliated beyond words. After having offered these honorary degrees to the proposed recipients in good faith and with competent authority, they were placed in the unenviable position of having to withdraw those offers because, allegedly, a little gang of politicians in Calgary found that one of those degrees would give academic kudos to a hated political opponent.

That is no reason, however, for the failure of these gentlemen to enlighten the public as to exactly what happened.

The public pays for the University. It is entitled to know, in minutest detail, every incident that lowers the status and prestige of that University.

And certainly the University of Alberta comes out of this sully affair with a big, shining black eye.

No one cares particularly about the personal feelings of those whose honorary doctorates were offered to them and then rudely drawn away. So far as these gentlemen are concerned, they were merely the victims of reprehensible bad manners. It is always the boor who suffers in the public estimation—not those whom the boors offend.

But everyone does care about the introduction of a nasty political intrigue into the affairs of the University. If politicians have been hurt in this unpleasant scuffle, let the politicians look out for themselves. They can do it. But when the University is hurt in this disgraceful business, every man, woman and child in the province is injured because it is to them that the University belongs.

That is why the people of Alberta, the educated people of Alberta, who are jealous of this province's educational prestige, demand to know exactly what is going on.

That is why they will not accept the specious plea that the matter is "too delicate to discuss" as a complete answer to their interested queries.

Secrecy increases tension and suspicion. Frankness and candor dispel those unpleasant clouds.

FRANCO NO CAT'S-PAW FOR FOREIGNERS

It is extremely difficult to instantiate and describe what Germany is doing in Spain. The German Daily News foreign staff has succeeded in getting the facts about the situation in Spain. The fifth of his revealing stories is appended.—EDITOR.

An American motoring through Spain gave some stale bread to the garage mechanics who had repaired his car. One actually burst into tears and the other said, "We haven't had bread like this since Los Rojas—since the Republic."

An expert who studied conditions in France and Spain said that while the French are in dire want the Spaniards are starving. He said that the average person in unoccupied France gets 2,500 calories of food daily, whereas in Spain, according to his studies, the average consumption is only 1,000 calories. Many of course have less than that. They are the ones found dead in the streets.

When a whole people suffers malnutrition plague becomes inevitable. Nearly 2,000 cases of typhus have already been reported in Spain.

LONDON, May 16.—(AP)—British airpower is smashing at the Germans in French-ruled Syria, where Nazi planes and shock troops are reported making a swift infiltration further along the Nazis' route to the Suez and nearer Britain's Middle East oil fields.

A British announcement in Cairo today disclosed the first British blow had been delivered in this potentially critical battle-front yesterday when German aircraft were shattered by the Royal Air Force at Damascus, Hama, and Palmyra, all in French-mandated Syria.

This followed upon a report by Reuters News Agency that German tanks and other light mechanized forces were moving across Syria and moving across the Syrian desert.

Western Canada Takes Lead In Enlistments Of Air Force Radio Crews

Edmonton, Calgary, Regina and Saskatoon Lead All Canada In Filling Initial Quotas

By B. T. RICHARDSON
Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, May 16.—Figures given today by Canada's air minister, Hon. C. G. Power, showed how western Canada took the lead in enlistments of air force radio mechanics when an urgent call came from Britain a few months ago for radio specialists to work on a secret device to combat night bombing.

The air ministry claimed the whole country soon obtained all available men with training. Then the call was issued on April 4 for 2,500 young men to train for the special radio work. Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Calgary led all Canada in filling the initial quotas, and the rest of the R.C.A.F. recruiting districts followed by April 18 there had been 1,411 enlistments and 1,111 pending, a total of 2,522 in 10 days after the call was issued.

Actual figures showed from the air ministry showed that both Winnipeg and Vancouver achieved increases of 50 per cent over the original quotas allotted to them.

Winnipeg started with a quota of 200 on April 4 and two days later the recruiting report was 300 and one person over that by April 18 the figures showed a big surplus. There were 173 enlistments and 234 applications waiting.

"SPANISH ULCER" MAY CAUSE HITLER'S DOWNFALL

Why Marching Into Spain Is Going To Be Easy For Hitler

But Staying In Spain Is Going To Be Hard For Nazis

the louse, which is a very class-conscious vermin almost never found on clean bodies.

If the government's efforts are inadequate typhus may sweep northward, where the French are vulnerable, and thence into the prison and concentration camps of Hitler's "New Europe". It would then become a problem even for Hitler's sleek and well-fed troops.

Such conditions cannot be explained by the Spanish civil war alone. For three years Spaniards slaughtered each other, laid towns low, destroyed the fields and neglected the crops. But to this the Spaniards have added three years of reconstruction under the Falangista (Fascist) party.

To these Spanish Nazis the peasants will till the soil and tend the vineyards and olive groves are "Reds," and so are the men who fish the seas and work in the factories. Jobs go to the Falangistas and party regularity, not competence, is the qualification for administrative positions in a corporative state which glorifies bureaucracy.

●Power Of Machine

"Alarms" Officer

The situation was summarized to me by a Spanish general who, while a Falangista himself, feels alarmed in the face of the power of the party machine.

"It must have been the same," he said, "after the American Revolution and again after the American Civil War. The country and the people haven't a chance until every damned hero in the war is dead."

"An officer who fought bravely at the front or a Falangista organizer who murdered behind the lines with vast zeal is not necessarily a good administrator. Well, these heroes are in all the key posts."

The bitter hatreds of civil war are not healed, moreover. Franco lost an opportunity to show himself magnanimous. Even a year ago he could have ended the weekly executions and turned out the imprisoned "Reds". Some 200,000 "Reds" could still be freed but the Falangistas know now that after the horrors they have suffered nothing will win their peaceable support of the Fascist regime. There seems to be no program but to keep them jailed until they slowly die.

●Adolf Hitler Faces

Enormous Problem

Marching into Spain consequently is going to be easy for Hitler's magnificently equipped army.

Staying in Spain is going to be hard. Starving Spaniards are not going to enjoy watching Hitler's soldiers eat.

Just Like Dad

Ending a honeymoon of less than a week, following their marriage recently, Captain James Roosevelt bade his wife good-bye at the Pan-American Clipper base at Treasure Island, and hopped off for Honolulu, where he will take up his duties with the Marine Corps. Mrs. Roosevelt will return shortly to Los Angeles. The couple are pictured here just before the huge clipper plane took off through the Golden Gate.

The men at the top may be thrilled with the thought of regaining Gibraltar and Morocco and they may look forward hopefully to the day when they can win back the former Spanish colonies in America. But the simple Spaniards are tired of war and the modern Goya horrors.

The strength of Franco heretofore has been his comprehension of the national revision to further fighting. That more than anything else has given him national prestige.

Spaniards have decided that Franco is an honest man in a moment when there is much corruption in Falangista circles and they have decided that he will not be a cat's paw for foreigners in a moment when many Falangista leaders are on the German pay-rolls.

Japanese Troops Strike

On Half Dozen Fronts

Biggest Revival Of Military Energy Displayed By Nipponese In Over a Year

HONG KONG, May 15.—(CDN)—Japanese divisions are striking hard along half-a-dozen fronts in the biggest revival of military energy displayed in over a year.

Colonel Donovan
Favors U.S. Entry
In War If Needed

CINCINNATI, May 16.—(AP)—Colonel William J. Donovan calls for all-out aid to Britain even to the extent of entering the war if necessary.

Speaking at a rally sponsored by the Fight for Freedom Committee, Donovan said that Americans first must decide whether they are in danger. Then, he added, we must decide what we can do to avert what he called the "danger of a German victory."

Donovan declared that Germany is not invincible, and he predicted its fall will be sudden and complete.

Press Protection

COLUMBUS, O., May 16.—(AP)—Ohio newspaper men received the protection of the general assembly Thursday under an "impunity" bill signed into law by Gov. John W. Bryner. It makes it unnecessary for reporters to divulge to courts their sources of information.

The Japanese are attempting to take advantage of China's internal difficulties and especially the Communist-Kuomintang impasse in the hope of striking a decisive discouraging blow.

Military experts are pretty well agreed, however, that nothing else is a drive toward Chungking, and there is no guarantee that even such a mammoth operation as that would bring the war to the quick decision which the Japanese so obviously desire.

Neutral observers have no confirmation of Chinese claims that troops from Manchuria are being employed in the northern operations.

The Japanese occupation of Wuhan, "Ironing Junction" in South China, lightens the blockade of the Chinese supply route from Hong Kong.

Tunnels extended—Renewal of the mass bombing raids on Chungking indicates that the Japanese have not abandoned the mistaken belief that they can discourage Chinese resistance through aerial tactics. Since the last bombing season, Chungking's bombproof tunnels have been extended to provide for nearly the entire population. With the safest dugout system in the world no city takes its daily dose of air medicine with more equanimity than the Chinese capital. It is doubtful whether there ever can be a repetition of the mass slaughter of the past two summers.

From all this Japanese operations, it is plain that the Japanese army is making another of its periodic efforts to soften the Chinese into a more conciliatory mood for peace. But the Chinese are not as discouraged as the Japanese think. The effects may be weakening but the odds are heavily against a decisive success. It can safely be said no peace talks are proceeding or contemplated.

tempting to break up and destroy concentrations of more than 200,000 Chinese troops. If this is a prelude to a thrust across the Yellow river westward toward Shan and Honan, important junction on the supply road from Russia, then it is not certain.

This is by no means certain, for the Japanese are far from being able to cross the river, which is defended on its south bank by some of Chiang Kai-shek's best troops. Japanese claims of a vast encircled movement and the entrapment of huge numbers of Chinese troops in steel jaws on their quarry, they say, is but a kind of bluff. HALIFAX VISITS
PLANT MAKING
TANKS FOR U. K.

HAMMOND, Indiana, May 16.—(U. S.)—Lord Halifax, British ambassador to the United States, yesterday visited an American factory that is turning out tanks for Britain.

Addressing the factory workers, Lord Halifax said: "When your job seems long and hard, remember all of us are working together to reach the place where we can join hands in building the right sort of future. It is a sense of encouragement to the British people if your work can be developed, continued and extended. That will be a sure proof for my nation. We are immensely grateful."

He added that the British determination to win the war "at all costs" was a definite fact. It can safely be said no peace talks are proceeding or contemplated.

Greenpeace plans are named for the British people who first introduced them into England.

Farm Supplies Are

WASHINGTON, May 16.—(AP)—Farm supplies worth $90,000,000 already have been "sent to ports" for Great Britain, Carl Robbins, president of the Community Credit Corporation, said today during a house banking committee discussion of corporation loans to other farm agencies for purchase of farm crops.

"Some emergency needs of the British have arisen for supplies that could only be met by the surplus marketing agency," Robbins said. "They were placed very promptly and were sent to the ports."

"Reimbursement will come from loan-bank funds in case the British will not be able to pay out of their ordinary dollar exchange."

To suppose that the United States is not yet in the Pacific is to ignore the fact that the Atlantic Islands. But he may be in Spain and Portugal and North Africa and the Middle East. The United States is unopposed in the Atlantic Islands as well. The real question arising out of this momentous development is whether or not we shall intervene in a trans-Atlantic war. It is whether there is a possibility of the United States of the Atlantic winning striking de-issues divide us, the practical issue—once presented—will unite us. The only way to avoid the issue is to ignore it. We will see the practical issue before we see the theoretical one. The issue is an accomplished fact and while there is time to forestall it, it is not time to forestall it by moving into the Atlantic—or whether, like every other democracy, they will wait until the issue is presented. Security is invaded until the invasion is actually under way. The answer to that question depends on the character of our government, our leaders and upon whether we have the character to face the facts.

But one thing is clear—when the real issue is posed, the unity of this country will be far closer than any one would imagine from listening to the current debate. Here, for example, is an interesting excerpt from the testimony on the lend-lease bill by Col. Robert McCormick, publisher of The Chicago Tribune:

If we really grasped the situation we should cease to spend our energy arguing about convicts or pariahs, and we should begin to defend war, about whether we should go to land great armies in Europe, or whether we should join ourselves with the now obsolete League of Nations, or whether we should all-out, or short of this or short of that. For we should realize that the only thing that is really at stake is deciding is none of these things but how to prevent Hitler from advancing his aims, and that is the only practical issue will unite us.

WEST JOBBERS OPPOSED MOVE TOBACCO FIRM

Western Canada tobacco jobbers protested against an attempt by W. C. Macdonald Incorporated, manufacturers, to introduce 12 for 10 cents packages of cigarettes in the marlins, and 24 for 20 packages in Ontario, documents read at the second Thursday at the "tobacco embers" trial of 36 manufacturers, wholesalers and jobbers disclosed.

Letters and telegrams exchanged between tobacco dealers and jobbers association officials were read by J. C. Moffatt, K.C., chief crown counsel, during these offers were a violation of the price agreements reached at meetings in 1935.

The documents showed the western jobbers were concerned about these offers and had endeavored to have them removed from the market. Several jobbers had written to the manufacturers suggesting they be withdrawn. The manufacturers had replied that the offers were necessary because of competition in the correspondence disclosed.

WORDS WITHIN WORDS

Here is a curiosity composed of seven-letter words, each of which has a three-letter word in the middle. Furthermore, the centre columns, reading downwards, has a nine-letter word and three three-letter words; it might be said to contain the names of a mammal, an article of clothing, a river, an island and a drink, all at once!

Instead of definitions, here is a list of the three-letter words that lie in the middle of the seven given in alphabetical order. Put each one where it belongs and add the second and sixth letters of each seven-letter word. Then see if you can find everything mentioned above in the middle columns reading downwards.

THREE-LETTER WORD LIST:
ANT, ATE, ATE, EMP, INK, KIM, RAM, RAT, SHE.
NOTE: The first word is NOT "GRANTIE".

Although he avoided mention of American aviators, Lord Halifax said: "You are as much concerned as we are in seeing that the material you strain every nerve to produce reaches its destination safely."

CRITICISM OF U.A. SENATE VOICED HERE

N. B. James, M.L.A., Attacks Recent Action At Meeting Thursday

Drastic changes in the University of Alberta senate were forecast by N. B. James, Social Credit member of the legislature for this city, and secretary of the Alberta Social Credit Board, in addressing a public meeting at the Alberta Avenue Community Hall, 118 avenue, Thursday night.

Mr. James devoted most of his address to the University senate withdrawal of the invitation extended to Premier William Abernethy to accept the honorary degree of doctor of laws and deliver the master's address at the convocation ceremonies at McLaughlin auditorium next Monday—two features usually linked together.

Charging politics were responsible for the senate's action, Mr. James declared: "This is not the first time our educational centre has been used for political purposes, against the government elected by the people, that is responsible for their support, but I venture to say that this will result in a more drastic change being made than that which will result in the senate's resignation of the office of the senate."

Mr. James did not elaborate and into details, but he said that changes forecast. He suggested they would be "far-reaching and drastic."

The university was set up under the act of 1907, the legislature passed the act and it can amend the act. The senate is not to be in some extent by laws from students, foundation grants and other smaller sources of revenue. However, it is by a legislative grant that is mainly enabled to operate on the present large scale.

In estimates raised at the recent senate the legislative vote for the university in the present fiscal year was $450,000, an increase of $22,000 over the previous year. University estimates hitherto have not been discussed in detail in the house, but have been left to university authorities to administer.

BULLETIN EDITORIAL

"My mind is filled with an incident which has occurred recently and which has probably aroused great indignation in your minds. It is in mind," said Mr. James, "You doubtless read in yesterday's Bulletin, the scolding indictment of the university senate on their action in regard to the studied refusal to offer to the Premier of this province."

"I want this evening to tell the Editor of the Edmonton Bulletin that the fair-minded people of Edmonton and wherever his paper is distributed and that the large majority, congratulate me on every change and move spoken said in the cause of decency and good taste."

"For you may use the Premier of this province, has been the target of the foulest abuse and deepest insult by his political and financial opponents can aim. It is always the same old story. The Premier is the champion of the people against the tyranny of finance and the vested interests, but when they start to use the people's university, such people are today feeling perhaps even more than we are, the degradation that has been brought on a body that should be held in the highest esteem by the citizens of Alberta and Canada. But offering this premeditated insult to the Premier of the province, they have lowered to the depths the dignity and prestige of our university, our city and our province."

UNIVERSITY STIGMATIZED

"I do not wish to accuse the senate as a whole of this disgusting exhibition of bad taste, understanding that the decent portion of them were overruled by some cheap and nasty politicians who had crept into their ranks, and some of whom are today feeling perhaps even more than we are, the degradation that has been brought on a body that should be held in the highest esteem by the citizens of Alberta and Canada. But offering this premeditated insult to the Premier of the province, they have lowered to the depths the dignity and prestige of our university, our city and our province."

"This is not the first time our educational centre has been used for political purposes, against the government elected by the people, that is responsible for their support, but I venture to say that this will result in a more drastic change being made than that which will result in the senate's resignation of the office of the senate."

"SMAR ON REPUTATION"

"Our sympathy goes out to some members of the faculty and senate, who have had this stigma forced upon them by the citizens of Edmonton, who will have to share unfairly in the blame, but the fact remains that our centre of learning in Alberta has been used in the most cheap political for their own foul purpose and that shows a weakness that should be removed out."

"I think it is up to the citizens of Edmonton, and the whole of Alberta, to see that such an exhibition of vulgarity can never occur again in connection with such an important part of our social life."

"This department is one, above all others, that should be kept free of the defiling influence of politics. Mr. Abernethy showed his determination to do this in some recent appointments he has made. It is

BUFFALO, N.Y., May 16.—(AP)—Parke Wright parked, wrong and paid a $1 fine Thursday for over time parking.

Wright, representative of the university forces to break this unwritten law in the most flagrant manner, to their own shame and the disgrace of our province. It is an unwelcome case on our reputation that is going to be hard to stomach.

"I just want to say in conclusion that I hope the citizens of Edmonton and of Alberta as a whole will express their disgust of this incident in no uncertain terms."

Dorothy Dix Says:

Still and all, the mere fact that so many of our young feminine intellectuals turn thumbs down on the ancient and honorable occupation which has heretofore been considered their predestined career, gives food for thought, and makes one speculate about how they got that way.

What has happened that has made the typewriter and the adding machine supersede the gains of a girl's fancy? Why do not the modern maiden dream of a job in an office instead of living in a vine-wreathed cottage, as her mother did? Why is it that the home-making instinct is apparently so atrophied in Miss 1941's breast that she can pass by even the most alluring display of pots and pans unmoved and without a single desire to possess them? We pause for a reply.

It seems to me that the reason girls have this phobia against domesticity and look down upon housework as a despised calling is only for morale and not to be considered by a college graduate because they have gotten the wrong slant on it. They think, for instance, that making a home is just a round of dull and menial labor that would bore any woman so much she would wish she had gone in for running a shoppe, or going into the movies, or something worth while.

They forget that we get out of every job just what we put into it, and that the work of the movie star who stands up day after day covered with grease painting over and over the same thing is just as tiresome as washing greasy dishes three times a day.

Taking it by and large, the

DUKE IN LONDON

The Duke, an air commodore in the Royal Air Force, arrived in London after midnight at the cockpit of a military plane after talking with Hessa for a second time.

An authoritative source said to say however that Kirkpatrick still is "within reach" of Hess in view of their frequent interviews and that reports he had come to London were untrue.

After conferring with the Duke of Hamilton, Mr. Duff Cooper was reported to have said a visit to the Admiralty, Churchills, and the Duke of Hamilton, a personal acquaintance of Hess, was to have been given leave from his military duties to help in unravelling the case. He carried a bulky dispatch case when he called.

OFFICIALS SILENT

Official circles were also apparently taking their cue from Mr. Schick, who told the House committee yesterday that he would say a statement until such time as it would be "in the public interest."

Informed sources declared, however, that Hess who proved a willing talker and on several occasions had prolonged his conversations with Mr. Kirkpatrick despite a physician's recommendation that he rest.

His ankle, fractured in the parachute landing, is mending, and physicians were said to have taken steps to relieve him of anxiety that he was suffering from

But the road to that future is not a smooth one. It will be a road of many twists and turns, and it will be a road that will require a great deal of courage and determination. We must make an immediate decision."

"Roman Roads" Followed By Victorious British Troops As They Chase Retreating Italians—Still Unbowed

A business-like passing through of troops was all the victory parade with which British marked capture of Asmara, important communications centre and capital city of Eritrea. The town fell before advancing British Empire troops who battered out the Italian defenders. The men shown here are Indians of the Empire forces.

THE ROAD TO VICTORY

Those "Roman roads" by which Italy was to have sealed hold over her East African empire may lead to her downfall—already they have proved the path of conquest for the men who are beating her armies. The British follow them as they hammer at the retreating Italians. Here Indian troops are shown at an ex-Italian strong point which failed to halt their progress along the road. An overturned Italian truck is at the RIGHT.

Mother's head is done up in bandages, but the youngsters keep their spirits up as she leads them from their bombed London home after recent Nazi air raid. They are bound for safety in some other area.

Forty-eight Spitfires, light-training planes, lined up at LaGuardia Field before being christened by 48 pretty models—one for each state of the Union. Each girl, a native of a different state, christened a plane named after her state by breaking a balloon affixed to the propeller shaft. The planes will be flown to the various states to raise funds for the Royal Air Force.

"Great Britain Shall Not Fall"

Arriving in Ottawa, where he was greeted by Prime Minister King, Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies of Australia told the Canadian House of Commons, "So long as these Dominions stand, Great Britain shall not fall." The Australian prime minister arrived in the Dominion capital aboard the R. C. A. F. bomber which flew him from New York.

Aussies Ready in the Rubber Country

A squad of Australian troops, some of the thousands that have been poured into Singapore and other strongholds in Malaya since the Japanese began making threatening gestures, is shown at bayonet practice among the rubber trees. The rubber plantations of Malaya are the largest in the world—one of the reasons that Japan would like to take the peninsula into her "new order for Asia."

Britain Shows Biggest Gun For First Time

Looking down into the muzzle of the giant "Boche Buster"

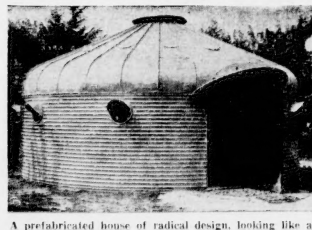

This gun, TOP, of unrevealed calibre, is now being used by the British army, and takes its place as one of the world's largest guns. A super heavy railway mounting is needed to carry it. BELOW is the name plate on the gun which seems to couple the name of the gun with England's leading war aim. The "H.M.C." means "His Majesty's Gun".

Pilot Missing

E. Friedrich, of Peoria, Ill., was among 11 U.S. plane ferry pilots listed as missing by the Canadian government in a recent sea disaster.

A prefabricated house of radical design, looking like an offshoot of a grain bin, has been submitted to the U. S. division of defense housing authority for inspection by government officials. Acute shortages of housing in the defense area was given as the reason. The interior of the steel house is 20 feet in diameter, 12 feet high, and is divided into four rooms by canvas partitions. Manufacturers state their plant is capable of turning out 1,000 units per day at the approximate cost of $750 per unit.

Husband Or Hog-Calling

This slim goddess wants to be called K. T. Stevens instead of Katharine Stevens (stage name) or Gloria Wood (real name), has asked California courts to make it legal. Reason: she doesn't want success in movies on name of poppa, noted producer-director Sam Wood.

Techniques do not vary greatly for husband calling or hog-calling as this picture shows. It was taken at the annual meeting of the Union Pacific Railroad employee organization in Los Angeles. Mrs. D. J. Cahoon, top, won the husband calling competition and Mrs. C. H. Siphart won the hog-calling event. Both are wives of Los Angeles railroad men.

America's Fastest Plane Clocked at 458 Miles an Hour

A powerful addition to any nation's fighting force is this Lockheed P-38 interceptor, one of the first to come off the production line at the Lockheed plant in Burbank, Calif. After the P-38 was clocked at 426 miles an hour on its first public performance, army air corps officials claimed it as "America's fastest plane." In the background, ABOVE, are several of the new famous Lockheed Hudson bombers waiting to be flown to England for service with the R.A.F. Interceptor P-38's will soon be taking their place in the sky over Britain. Too. They are armed with both cannon and machine guns and are powered by Allison motors.
